

Summer 1974

UA11/2 This Week at Western Press Releases

WKU Public Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc\_ua\_records

---

Recommended Citation

WKU Public Affairs, "UA11/2 This Week at Western Press Releases" (1974). WKU Archives Records. Paper 1028.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc\_ua\_records/1028

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

News from Western

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MARCH 24
20Sp0374/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, March 24 - Saturday, March 30

TODAY

2:30 P.M. -- HONORS CONVOCATION -- Western students who have attained accumulative grade point averages of 3.3 or above out of a possible 4.0 and their parents will be given recognition at the University's annual Honors Convocation this afternoon in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center. Families of the honorees have been sent special invitations and will be guests at a reception immediately following the program.

-30-

3:00 P.M. -- MUSIC -- George D. Smith Jr., a music major, will present his senior recital in the Ivan Wilson Center Recital Hall. The flutist will deliver a debut performance of a composition written especially for him by the American composer, David N. Baker Jr., professor of jazz studies at Indiana University.

Also appearing on the program will be Jim Simpson, saxophonist and WKU drum major for the University's Marching Band. They will be accompanied by Western students Carol Switzer and Kim Rutledge.

The composition which was written for Smith's recital is entitled "Six Poemes Noirs pour Flute et Piano" and it's composer says it is "drawn from the Black experience, featuring unusual varieties of tempi and dynamics, showing the influence of the spiritual, blues and jazz musical forms."

Smith is a student of Dwight Pounds of Western's music department.

There is no admission charge.

-30-

MONDAY

10 A.M. - 5 P.M. -- ART EXHIBIT AND SALE -- Representatives from the Ferdinand Roten Galleries, which has one of the largest collections of graphic art in the U.S., will be at the Art Gallery, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts, for an exhibition and sale of more than 1,000 original etchings, lithographic and woodcuts. Western annually hosts the sale by the Baltimore, Md. headquartered firm which specializes in arranging exhibitions and sales at colleges, art centers and diverse community organizations throughout the U.S. and Canada.

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

-30-

8 P.M. -- LECTURE -- Congressman John Conyers, D-Mich., will speak in Van Meter Auditorium as a guest of the Associated Student Government Lecture Series.

Conyers, who currently is a member of the House Judiciary Committee, was elected in 1972 to his fifth term in the U.S. House of Representatives.

ASG lectures at Western are open to the public without charge.

-30-

TUESDAY

4 P.M. and 7:30 P.M. -- SPECIAL FILM -- Western's Department of Foreign Languages sponsors a film series open to the public without charge. Currently showing is "Kuhle Wampe" in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The German film is the last made in Germany before Hitler assumed power and reflects the social conditions of the times.

Director is Bertolt Brecht.

-30-

8:15 P.M. -- THEATRE -- Western has been given permission to perform James Dickey's "Jericho: The South Beheld," which will be published next fall. It will be presented for the first time on Western's campus in Theatre 100 of Gordon Wilson Hall.

Students of Dr. James A. Pearse, assistant professor of speech and theatre, will read the work in an interpretive theatre presentation which will be repeated Thursday evening also.

No admission charge.

-30-

THURSDAY

7:30 P.M. -- LECTURE -- As part of the statewide celebration, Western is presenting the Kentucky Building Bicentennial Lecture Series and the first presentation will feature Dr. and Mrs. Ward C. Sumpter of Bowling Green, speaking about "Old Homes in Warren County."

Open to the public without charge, Kentucky Building.

-30-

THURSDAY (cont'd) ... ADD TWO

8:15 P.M. -- THEATRE -- "Jericho: The South Beheld," Gordon Wilson Hall, Theatre 100.

-30-

FRIDAY

7:30 A.M. -- COFFEE HOUR -- Aubrey Wagner, chairman of the Board, Tennessee Valley Authority, will be the featured speaker at the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Hour in the rear dining room of the Dero G. Downing University Center.

-30-

9 A.M. - 4 P.M. -- MUSIC FEST -- More than 2,000 junior and senior high school students from more than 50 schools in the central region of Kentucky will participate in the 37th annual Regional Music Festival for Solos and Ensembles, sponsored by the Kentucky Music Educators Association and hosted by Western.

Parents and friends are invited to attend sessions which will be held today and Saturday at the Paul L. Garrett Center and at the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Claude E. Rose of Western's music department and festival chairman, reports that the fest will feature more than 1,100 performances and students will be judged by a six-member panel of music educators from around the state.

-30-

8 A.M. - 9 P.M. -- ORAL INTERPRETATION FEST -- Southern Fiction and how it is interpreted will be the theme of a two-day festival for students from 15 colleges and universities from six states attending the Green River Oral Interpretation Festival at the campus.

Members of the community are cordially invited to sessions in Gordon Wilson Hall, Theatre 100.

A special guest lecturer will be Dr. Alethea S. Mattingly, author of the text, "Interpretation: Writer-Reader Audience." Dr. Mattingly, who teaches at the University of Arizona, will speak at 11 a.m. 2:30 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m.

-30-

SATURDAY

9 A.M. - NOON -- ORAL INTERPRETATION FEST -- Theatre 100, Gordon Wilson Hall.

Dr. Alethea Mattingly will chair a readers theatre workshop.

-30-

9 A.M. - 4 P.M. -- KMEA MUSIC FESTIVAL -- Paul L. Garrett Conference Center and Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

-30-

News from Western

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MARCH 31
28Sp0374/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, March 31 - Saturday, April 6

TODAY

3 p.m. -- ORCHESTRA CONCERT. Ninety young musicians from Jefferson High School in Lafayette, Ind. a consistent winner of superior ratings in Indiana musical contests, will wind up their spring vacation on concert tour in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

There is no admission charge.

This impressive group of teenaged musicians presented their program of varied music with something of interest for everyone at Disney World on Friday, following performances in Kentucky and Florida.

Highlighted selections will be Romantic Symphony No. 2 by Hanson, selections from Jesus Christ Superstar by Weber, arranged by Henry Mancini, selections from Shaft by Isacc Hayes, works by Michel LeGrand and musical selections distinctive of the American idiom, such as The Battle Hymn of the Republic and The American Civil War Fantasy.

The Jeff Orchestra, which also has a stage band, is one of the most traveled in Indiana, having performed on tour at the University of Louisville, University of Wisconsin and last year in St. Louis.

-30-

7:30 p.m. -- MISS WESTERN PAGEANT. Van Meter Auditorium. The Interfraternity Council at the University annually sponsors the Miss Western Kentucky University Scholarship Pageant, a preliminary to the Miss Kentucky and Miss America Pageants.

Twelve coeds will be featured contestants in this kick-off event for the 1974 Greek Awareness Week at the campus.

A special guest will be Miss Kentucky 1973, Lyda Lewis, and mistress of ceremonies will be a former Miss Western and Miss Louisville, Tina Showalter.

Tickets, available at the door, are $1.50 per person.

-30-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

TUESDAY

12:30 - 4:30 p.m. -- SPELLING BEE. It's time again for the spelldown. The Third District Parent-Teachers Association will sponsor its 24th annual Spelling Bee in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Last year's champ who received the $25 top prize was Scott Davis of T.C. Cherry Elementary School.

The contest will be broadcast live over WKCT Radio.

-30-

8 p.m. -- LECTURE. Senator Sam Ervin, (Dem. N.C.) who is most widely known for his chairmanship of the Senate Watergate Committee, will speak in E.A. Diddle Arena, sponsored by the University's Associated Student Government and Interfraternity Council.

Admission is free.

-30-

8 p.m. -- RECITAL. Emery E. Alford, a graduate student in music at Western, will present a recital in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the master of music degree.

Alford will be assisted by the Western Kentucky University Jazz Band and Western students Tom Carawan and Terry Tichenor, pianists.

There is no admission charge.

-30-

WEDNESDAY

9:30 a.m. - 2 p.m. -- HEALTH CAREERS DAY -- High School students from 19 counties have been invited to get a first-hand look at job opportunities in medical fields.

Representatives from health occupations will be in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center and Theatre, Dero Downing University Center, to talk with interested young visitors.

The event is sponsored by Western in cooperation with the Women's Medical Auxiliary of the Tri-County Medical Society, Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital, Greenview Hospital and Bowling Green Area Vocational School.

-30-

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN (Cont.) ... ADD TWO

FRIDAY

3 p.m. -- LECTURE. The Western Club of the Society of Sigma Xi, research fraternity in the sciences, is sponsoring a lecture to be delivered by Dr. Calvin A. Lang, professor of biochemistry and director, Biological Aging Program, School of Medicine, University of Louisville.

Dr. Lang will speak on "Mosquitos and Mice as Models of Aging Man" in Room 129 of the Kelly Thompson Complex for Science, Central Wing.

The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

-30-

SATURDAY

2 p.m. and 8 p.m. -- LECTURE DEMONSTRATION AND DANCE PERFORMANCE. Western's Asian Studies Committee, in conjunction with a University International Dimensions project, will present Saeko Ichinohe and Company in an afternoon lecture-demonstration and evening performance of contemporary dance in Van Meter Auditorium.

Miss Ichinohe has organized her own company of seven dancers with whom she is performing her original works on her first United States Tour. She has worked on choreography for the Rebekah Harkness Ballet Company, the Balletinstitutte of Oslo, and has won prizes for choreography in Cologne and at the Annual Modern Dance Competition in Tokyo.

There is no admission charge.

-30-

News from Western Western KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, APRIL 7
04Sp0474/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, April 7 through Saturday, April 13

TODAY

3 p.m. -- CONCERT. The Blair String Quartet from Blair Academy at Peabody College in Nashville will present a program of music in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The concert is sponsored by the Bowling Green Chamber Music Series.

Admission is $1 for Western students, faculty and staff and $2 for the general public.

-30-

MONDAY

5:30 - 7 p.m. -- COFFEE HOUR. The Western chapter of the American Association of University Women will sponsor a dessert and coffee hour in Room 226, Dero Downing University Center.

Senior women are invited and members of the planning committee have issued a special invitation to those students living off-campus in the Bowling Green area to attend also.

-30-

8 p.m. -- JAZZ PROGRAM. A 12-member percussion ensemble made up of Western students and a 19-member jazz band will present a program in Van Meter Auditorium.

The University's Department of Music is sponsoring the program which is open to the public without charge.

-30-

TUESDAY

8 p.m. -- FACULTY RECITAL. The Department of Music will present Dr. Barbara Ferrell Hill, assistant professor of music, at the harpsichord and piano in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Works to be performed will feature Scarlatti, Richard Trythall, Mendelssohn and Samuel Barber.

The public is invited.

-30-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD ONE

WEDNESDAY

5 p.m. - 8 p.m. -- THIRD DISTRICT ADMINISTRATORS MEETING. Members of the Third District Administrators Association will hold individual group meetings in the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center at the campus.

Dr. Lyman Ginger, state superintendent of Public Instruction, will be the featured speaker at the general session following dinner in Cafeteria One.

-30-

THURSDAY

8 p.m. -- HARPIST IN CONCERT. The University Center Board will present troubadour harpist Gerald Goodman in Van Meter Auditorium.

Goodman returns to the campus following two seasons of successful stops in Bowling Green.

His program ranges from ancient ballads to symphonic harp selections and medleys of modern folk songs and Broadway show tunes.

Admission is $1 for Western students, faculty and staff and $1.50 for the general public.

-30-

News from Western Kentucky University

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, APRIL 14
11Sp0474/SC:bmj

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, April 14 - Saturday, April 20

TODAY

All day -- HAPPY EASTER. Western empties its calendar today so that all of our friends may enjoy whatever this day holds for each and every one of you with all of our best wishes.

-30-

TUESDAY

4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. -- SPECIAL FILM. The Department of Foreign Languages will present a German film, "Hokuspokus" free of charge in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The film is part of a series sponsored by the department and is based on a play by German playwright, Kurt Goetz.

-30-

6:30 p.m. -- TWILIGHT CONCERT. The Western Band, under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell, will present the first of a series of three outdoor concerts on consecutive Tuesdays throughout the rest of the month at the Outdoor Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The hour-long programs are free and the band plans to take music back into time to the era of outdoor park music.

Programs will feature several outstanding Western student musicians as soloists and small instrumental groups such as the Western Jazz Band and Percussion Ensemble.

Spring and the out of doors are two good reasons to come, and music makes it so. Says WKU's Band Director: "We should have something on every program that should please everybody."

-30-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

8 p.m. -- UNIVERSITY LECTURE. The Honorable Carl T. Rowan, syndicated columnist, television commentator, author and former federal official, will be the sixth speaker in the University Lecture Series in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

The lecture is free.

Rowan served under the late President John F. Kennedy as deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs, as a member of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations and as the ambassador to Finland. Under the late President Lyndon B. Johnson he was director of the U.S. Information Agency.

-30-

WEDNESDAY

Noon - 6 p.m. -- LOUISVILLE AND KEA. Travelers to the Kentucky Education Association annual meeting at the State Fair and Exposition Center this week are cordially invited to stop by Western KEA Headquarters in the Lobby of the Executive Inn anytime.

Pupils out of school, happy vacation, and teachers, a profitable meeting. Enjoy our hospitality today and tomorrow at the Western Booth, in the Exposition Center Exhibit Hall and all are invited to a Continental Breakfast Friday morning in the Ballroom.

-30-

THURSDAY

9 a.m. - 6 p.m. -- MORE ON KEA. The Western booth is open. Stop a minute.

7 p.m. -- READING HOUR. Meanwhile, back at the campus, students of Dr. James Pearse in the Department of Speech and Theatre, will present a "Black Reading Hour" with emphasis on works by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The hour is open to the public without charge and readings in Theatre 100 of Gordon Wilson Hall will feature WKU students: Addie Shelton, Lexington; Renee Franklin, Tampa, Fla.; Donna Bradley, Lynchburg, Va.; Celia Hawkins, Mt. Sterling; Greg McKinney, Bowling Green; and Rallin Herndon, Louisville.

-30-

7:30 p.m. -- LECTURE ON WILD FLOWERS. Miss Marjorie Clagett, a retired faculty member of the Department of Foreign Languages, and an authority on wildflowers, will speak at the Kentucky Building as the second featured guest of a lecture series sponsored by the Kentucky Building during the statewide Bicentennial.

The lecture is free and assisting Miss Clagett will be Scott Etterman and Michael Clagett, both students at Western and residents of Bowling Green.

-30-

FRIDAY

7:30 a.m. - 9 a.m. -- COFFEE FOR KEA'ers. Western rolls out the red carpet with a continental coffee hour and reception in the Ballroom, State Fair and Exposition Center.

Old timers, welcome back. Newcomers, welcome aboard.

-30-

As an added note: May the Easter Beagle put all of your eggs in one basket.

News from Western

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, APRIL 21
18Sp0474/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, April 21 - Saturday, April 27

MONDAY

8 p.m. -- BRASS CONCERT. The University Brass Choir and Ensemble, under the direction of Bennie Beach, associate professor of music, will present a musical program in Van Meter Auditorium.

Featured percussion soloist will be Emery Alford, a graduate student at Western. The program is open to the public without charge.

-30-

TUESDAY

3 p.m. -- POETRY READING. The Department of English will present Professor Coleman Barks, poet in residence at the University of Michigan, who will read from his works in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The public is invited to attend the hour-long program.

Dr. Barks has published some 250 poems in small magazines and currently has poems appearing in nine anthologies, including a bi-lingual Japanese anthology of 20 American poets. He also is author of a book entitled "The Juice," published in 1972.

Dr. Barks has given readings at the South Atlantic Modern Language Association and at the Conference on College Composition and Communication and has read at more than 50 different college campuses.

-30-

6:30 p.m. -- TWILIGHT CONCERT. The Western Band, under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell, will present an outdoor concert today (weather permitting) at the Outdoor Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The hour-long program is free and the band plans to take music back into time to the era of outdoor park music.

The program will feature several outstanding Western student musicians as soloists and small instrumental groups such as the Western Jazz Band and Percussion Ensemble.

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD ONE

(Twilight Concert Cont.)

"We should have something on the program that should please everyone," says Western's band director.

-30-

8 p.m. -- PHARMACISTS' MEETING. Area pharmacists and health care professionals are invited to a meeting in Room 230, Dero Downing University Center.

On the program will be Dr. William C. Lubawy and Dr. Louis Diamond of the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy.

Lubawy will speak on contraception and Diamond will discuss obstructive lung disorders.

This continuing education program is co-sponsored by Western and the University of Kentucky and more information may be obtained by contacting Barry Steen at Western's Health Services Clinic.

-30-

8:15 p.m. -- THEATRE. Sophocles' "Antigone" will be presented by Western's Department of Speech and Theatre in the Russell Miller Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts, through Saturday this week.

Tickets are priced at $1.50 each and may be obtained at the door or by calling the speech and theatre department at 745-3296.

This second major production this semester is directed by Dr. Lee Mitchell, distinguished visiting professor at the University.

-30-

WEDNESDAY

*8:15 p.m. -- THEATRE. "Antigone," Russell Miller Theatre.

THURSDAY

6:30 p.m. -- AWARDS BANQUET. Western annually sponsors an Awards Day Banquet for students who have received recognition during the school year for various academic, athletic and service achievements and this year more than 100, their parents, husbands and wives, have been invited.

Western President Dero G. Downing will preside over the banquet which will be held in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center. Representatives from the Western faculty will present the awards to students in their areas.

-30-

8 p.m. -- ORCHESTRA CONCERT. The Western Kentucky University-Bowling Green Community Orchestra under the direction of Benjamin Woodruff, will present its final concert of the year at Van Meter Auditorium.

Guest soloist will be Miller Sigmon, saxophonist with the U.S. Marine Corps Band, headquartered in Washington, D.C.

The program is open to the public without charge.

-30-

8:15 p.m. -- THEATRE. "Antigone," Russell Miller Theatre.

-30-

FRIDAY

7:30 a.m. -- COFFEE HOUR. The Chamber of Commerce Coffee Hour, hosted by Western Kentucky University, will feature as guest speaker, James E. Gray, secretary of Transportation and commissioner, Bureau of Highways, in the rear dining room, Dero Downing University Center.

-30-

8 a.m. -- HIGH SCHOOL HISTORIANS. Junior and senior high school students from Kentucky will be on the Western campus today competing in a statewide competition sponsored by Western's Department of History.

Young historians will be competing for trophies and medals following a series of tests covering American and World history topics.

-30-

9 a.m. - 1 p.m. -- FFA FIELD DAY. High school aged Future Farmers of America in Kentucky will have a field day today at the University's Agriculture Farm.

The annual event is sponsored by Western's Department of Agriculture and includes various contests for both individual and team participation with trophies to be awarded to top-ranking participants.

Scholarship and award presentations will be held at 1 p.m. in the Agriculture Pavilion.

-30-
senior

All Day. -- BAND FESTIVAL. Junior high and/ high school bands will compete for top rankings at a Band Festival co-sponsored by Western and the Kentucky Music Educators Association.

Performances will be held in Van Meter Auditorium, the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts and in the Downing University Center Theatre.

The public is invited.

-30-

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD THREE

8:15 p.m. -- THEATRE. "Antigone," Russell Miller Theatre.

-30-

SATURDAY

All Day -- BAND FESTIVAL. Van Meter, Recital Hall and University Center.

-30-

8:15 p.m. -- THEATRE. "Antigone," Russell Miller Theatre.

-30-

News from Western Western Kentucky University

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
25SP0474/SC:ks

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, April 28 through Saturday, May 4

TODAY

3 p.m. CHORAL UNION. The University's Choral Union will present Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana" in Van Meter Auditorium. There is no admission charge.

The program will be under the direction of Jim R. Jones, assistant professor of music, and will feature seven soloists, two dancers, five percussionists and three accompanists.

About the composer of "Carmina Burana," Jones says Orff "employs a direct, almost primitive musical style in which the primary factor is rhythm. Orff works with ancient musical forms, seeking not to revitalize but rather to convey the vitality inherent in the songs," says Western' director.

-30-

MONDAY

6 p.m. VINCENT PRICE ON KET. A three-part program, featuring Vincent Price, a guest lecturer for the 1974 Rodes-Helm Lecture Series, will be aired over the 12-station Kentucky Educational Television network.

The interview conducted by three Western faculty members is produced by the Educational Television Center in the University's Division of Media Services and covers Price's opinions about art, food and acting.

Interviewers are Mrs. Marty Henton, WKU art department, Mrs. Shirley Gibbs, home economics and family living and Dr. William E. Leonard, Department of Speech and Theatre.

The program may be seen in the Bowling Green area on Channel 53, WKGB.

-30-

6:30 p.m. TWILIGHT CONCERT. The final program in a series of outdoor concerts

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD ONE

will be presented by the Western Band under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell of Western's music department faculty, Outdoor Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

There is no admission charge.

WEDNESDAY

8:15 p.m. DANCE PROGRAM. Dance students of Mrs. Beverly Leonard, artist-in-residence, will present their first full-length program, "An Evening of Dance" in the Russell Miller Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Admission will be $1.00 and the public is cordially invited to attend the program which will feature 35 members of a dance workshop in a variety of dance forms from ballet to modern jazz.

-30-

THURSDAY

3:30 p.m. MILITARY AWARDS. The Department of Military Science will hold its annual Awards Day Ceremony at the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts Outdoor Theatre. The public is invited to attend.

-30-

7:30 p.m. WESTERN CHOIR. The annual spring concert by the University Choir will be held in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Ohm Pauli, associate professor of music, will direct the program, which includes works by Schein, Tcherpnin, Poulenc, Ives, Randall Thompson and Gerald Finzi.

Featured will be movements from the Spanish Folk Mass, "Missa Criolla," with soloists Dan Bowell, graduate student from Bowling Green and William Miller, a junior from Valley Station.

Jan Heddon, a senior from Westfield, N.J., will perform the aria "Ah Fors' e lui" from Verdi's "La Traviata" and Cheryl Harvey, a freshman from Henderson, will be a featured soloist performing a spiritual number.

There is no admission charge.

-30-

8:15 p.m. 'AN EVENING OF DANCE'. Russell Miller Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

-30-

-more-

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD TWO

All day. CPS EXAM. Western will be one of 150 centers throughout the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico serving as examination centers for the 1974 Certified Professional Secretary Examination.

The exam is open to all secretaries who meet specific educational requirements in combination with specified years of verified secretarial experience, according to Mrs. Gloria Hovious, assistant professor of business education and office administration.

Information regarding time and location for the two-day exam may be obtained by contacting the Department of Business Education and Office Administration.

-30-

SATURDAY

All Day. CPS EXAM. Contact Department of Business Education and Office Administration.

-30-

News from Western Kentucky University

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
02Sp0574/SC:bmj

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, May 5 through Saturday, May 11

TODAY

2:30 p.m. CHOIR CONCERT. The Bowling Green High School Choir will present a program of music on the Western campus in Van Meter Auditorium.

The public is invited to attend.

-30-

MONDAY through FRIDAY

Western Kentucky University regular classes are dismissed for final examinations for the spring semester, which ends Friday.

SATURDAY

8:15 a.m. ROTC COMMISSIONING. Eleven graduating seniors will be commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army in the Auditorium, College of Education Building.

First Lt. Steven C. Foster of the Department of Earth, Space and Graphic Sciences, United States Military Academy, will be the featured speaker. Lt. Foster is a 1970 graduate of Western's ROTC program and currently is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Nebraska. He is the son of Dr. Robert H. Foster of Western's Department of Geography and Geology.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

-30-

10 a.m. 109th COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES. Western Kentucky University will award degrees to 1,771 graduates at the University's spring Commencement Exercises in E.A. Diddle Arena.

Western President, Dr. Dero G. Downing, will award the degrees to 1,323 receiving bachelor's degrees, 257 master's degree candidates, and 191 candidates for associate degrees.

Dr. Harry B. Gray, professor of chemistry at the California Institute of Technology and a Phi Beta Kappa Visiting Scholar, will be the principal speaker at the ceremonies which will also include the announcement of the University's 1974 Ogden Scholarship

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

-more-

Award recipient who will be the graduating senior with the highest academic average.

Recipients of the University's annual award for excellence in productive teaching and the faculty award for contributions in research and scholarly investigation also will be announced by Dr. Raymond L. Cravens, vice president for academic affairs and dean of the faculties.

Western's commencement speaker is a native of Woodburn and is the son of Mrs. H.B. Gray of 633 E. 11th St. in Bowling Green.

Gray was a mathematics and chemistry major at Western and received the B.S. degree from the University in 1957. The honor graduate has traveled to eight institutions this past school year as a participant in the Phi Beta Kappa Visiting Scholar Program.

The member of the National Academy of Sciences was the recipient of the American Chemical Society Award in pure chemistry in 1970 and in 1972 was selected for a Guggenheim fellowship and the Manufacturing Chemists' Association Award for Excellence in Chemistry teaching.

He held Dow and National Science Foundation Fellowships at Northwestern University, where he received the Ph.D. degree in 1960.

He was a National Science Foundation Post-doctoral Fellow at the University of Copenhagen in 1960-61. In 1961 he joined the chemistry faculty at Columbia University as an assistant professor. He was promoted to associate professor in 1963 and professor at the age of 29 in 1965--the youngest professor ever at Columbia University.

He published approximately 175 research papers and 10 books.

In 1966 he joined the staff of the California Institute of Technology as Professor of Chemistry.

During his student years at Western, Gray was an active student, who served as president of his junior and senior classes in 1956 and 57. He was selected to Who's Who Among College and University Students in 1957 and served as a member of Western's tennis team, as a member of the chemistry club, and was a member of the executive committee of the Student Advisory Council.

Dr. Gray is married to the former Shirley Barnes of Beaver Dam, who is also a 1957 graduate of Western. Mrs. Gray was elected Homecoming Queen that same year and served as secretary of the senior class.

-30-

11:15 a.m. RECEPTION. Families and friends of graduating seniors are invited to the University's annual faculty and staff reception in the Dero Downing University Center immediately following commencement exercises.

-30-

News from Western

WESTERN KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MAY 12
08Sp0574/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, May 12 through Saturday, May 18

TODAY

2:30 p.m. BAND CONCERT. Students from Bowling Green High School will present their Spring Band Concert in Van Meter Auditorium.

The program is open to the public without charge.

-30-

MONDAY

9:30 a.m. - Noon. STATE PTA MEETING. District representatives will attend a statewide Parent-Teachers Association meeting in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Mrs. Baine Riley, statewide president will be the featured speaker at the meeting which will be attended by some 75 participants.

-30-

TUESDAY

6 p.m. WORLD FOOD CRISIS ON KET. A program featuring an interview by Western students and faculty with Clarence D. Palmbly, former assistant secretary of agriculture, will be aired over 12 stations of the Kentucky Educational Television network and four translators.

The program is produced by the Educational Television Center in the Division of Media Services at Western and topics include the pending world food crisis, problems of food price increases, the American foreign trade in agricultural products, specifically the Russian and Chinese grain purchases.

Moderator for the program is Dr. Kenneth Camm, head of Western's Department of Economics.

The program may be seen in the Bowling Green area on Channel 53, WKGB.

-30-

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD ONE

WEDNESDAY

8:30 a.m. - Noon. WORKSHOP. Local officials, including civic and educational leaders in the Barren River Area Development District are invited to attend a Workshop on Kentucky's Occupational Health and Safety Act (OSHA) in Room 305, Dero Downing University Center.

The workshop, which is co-sponsored by Western and the Barren River Area Development District, will feature the following three speakers from the Kentucky Department of Labor:

John O. Cecil, public employee coordinator, Barry K. Holder, assistant director of education and training and William H. McChord, assistant public employee coordinator.

News from Western Kentucky University

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MAY 19
15Sp0574/SC:bmg

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, May 19 through Saturday, May 25

MONDAY

9 a.m. MAY TERM BEGINS. Classes being today for Western's May Term, a short term in which students may earn three to four semester hours of credit in three weeks of intensive study. Classes will run through Saturday, ~~May~~ <sup>JUNE</sup> 1.

This term is designed to provide a service to students who wish to earn three or four additional hours of credit and still be able to attend summer school or obtain summer employment.

-30-

6 p.m. FOLK STUDIES ON KET. Dr. Kenneth Clarke, professor of folk studies at Western, narrates a practical demonstration and description of folk instruments and their development on this program which is produced by the University's Educational Television Center, Division of Media Services.

The program may be seen on 12 stations of the Kentucky Educational Television network and in Bowling Green on Channel 53, WKGB.

-30-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

Office of Public Affairs

Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

News from Western

WESTERN KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR RELEASE SUNDAY MAY 26
22SP0574/SC:jr

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, May 26 through Saturday, June 1

TUESDAY

8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. WORKSHOP ON 'DIGNITY OF MAN.' The Kentucky Humanities Council and Western Kentucky University will sponsor a one-day workshop for humanities professionals from the disciplines of philosophy, religion, history, sociology, political science and psychology covering the overall theme, "The Dignity of Man."

Six consultants have been invited to speak to the group which will meet in Rooms 101, 105 and 109 of the Jones-Jaggers Laboratory School at Western.

They are: Dixie Kimberlin, a staff psychologist at the Bingham Child Guidance Clinic, University of Louisville Department of Psychiatry; Dr. Vernon Martin, professor of government, Western; Gary Rodes, associate professor, Kentucky School of Social Work, University of Louisville; Dr. Francis Thompson, associate professor of history, Western; Dr. Jack Willers, professor of history and philosophy of education, George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn.; and Dr. Paul Wozniak, associate professor of sociology, Western.

Project directors for the workshop are Mrs. Christine D. Monroe, M.S.S.W., instructor of social work at Western, and Duane D. Andrews, A.C.S.W., instructor of social work; Western.

6:30 p.m. RELIGION IN THE U.S. ON KET. Dr. Carl Henry, one of America's leading theologians, discusses current religious trends in the United States on this program which is produced by Western's Educational Television Center, Division of Media Services.

Dr. Henry is interviewed on the program by Dr. Ronald Nash, head of Western's Department of Philosophy and Religion, and Dr. Robert Mounce, dean of the Potter College of Arts and Humanities.

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN ... ADD ONE

Topics include Watergate, religion and politics and the occult and the program may be seen on 12 stations of the Kentucky Educational Television Network and in Bowling Green on Channel 53, WKGB.

FRIDAY

7:30 a.m. CHAMBER COFFEE HOUR. Bowling Green Mayor Spero Keriakes and City Manager Paul McCauley will be the featured speakers at the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Hour sponsored by the Water Sewer and Sanitation Commission and hosted by Western Kentucky University, Dero Downing University Center.

-30-

THIS WEEK